

Join us for the Farmington Libraries' A Universe of Stories 2019 Summer Reading Program!! Coinciding with NASA's 60 years of achievement and its celebration of the 50th anniversary of the Apollo 11 Moon Landing, we'll be reading daily, offering fantastic programs, and exploring our universe all summer long.

When is Summer Reading?

The Summer Reading program officially runs from June 17 – August 17, though you can register and start logging your reading on the first day of summer vacation.

Who Can Participate in the Children's Summer Reading Program?

- ⇒ Toddlers and preschoolers can use our Toddler and Preschool Activity Log to enjoy fun, literacy-building activities. Bring your completed log to the library and pick out a FREE BOOK!
- ⇒ Kids going into K-6 grade log how many days they read this summer following the details below:

How do I log my reading days for Summer Reading?

- ⇒ Visit <http://farmingtonlibraries.org/kids-summer-reading-2019/> and click on the link for our summer reading program. Follow registration instructions to create an account.
- ⇒ Prefer to participate off-line? Stop by the library to pick up a paper log.
- ⇒ Once you register online or receive your paper log, visit the Children's Department to add your name to a star!
- ⇒ Log in every day that you read. We're keeping track of days, not minutes, to encourage a daily reading habit!

How can I earn prizes?

You can earn prizes by logging the days you read this summer.

- ⇒ Read at least 10 days, and come to the library to choose A PRIZE!
- ⇒ Read for at least 20 days and receive a BAG & a BOOKPLATE with your name on it to put in any book in our library!
- ⇒ Read for at least 30 days and choose a FREE BOOK! But wait! There's more...

Prize Basket Giveaways

- ⇒ Spin the prize basket wheel for 40, 50, and 60 days of reading to see how many tickets you get to add to our prize basket giveaways! Will the wheel land on 1,2, or 3 tickets???
