

LOGGING INTO ANCESTRY LIBRARY EDITION FROM HOME

STEP ONE: Visit <https://catalog.farmingtonlibraries.org/> and login into your library account

The screenshot shows the homepage of The Farmington Libraries. The header includes the library logo, name, and tagline "Service. Experiences. Resources." along with contact information for the Main and Barney Libraries. A navigation menu is located below the header. A search bar is present with a "Go" button. The main content area features a "Log in to your account:" section, which is circled in red. This section contains two input fields for "Login: (14-digit library card #, no spaces)" and "Password: (your last name in lower case, i.e. smith)", and a "Log in" button. Below the login form are links for "Forgot your password?" and "Don't have an account? Register here."

STEP TWO: Once you're logged into your library account Ancestry Library Edition will appear in left hand list. Click and enjoy!

The screenshot shows the user profile page on the Farmington Libraries website. The header and navigation menu are identical to the previous screenshot. The main content area displays a personalized greeting: "Hello, Your Name Here" and "Click here if you're not: Your Name Here". Below this, there are buttons for "Checked out (0)" and "Holds", and a message stating "You have nothing checked out". In the left-hand navigation menu, the "Ancestry" link is circled in red. Other links in the menu include "Home", "Library Home", "Downloadable Catalog", "IndieFlix Film Streaming", "Online Research Resources", "Book News", "your summary", "your charges", and "your personal details".
